DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,9,10 and 17-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wood (US 6,106,733). See column 2, line 28 through column 6, line 45.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shenoi (US 5,413,129). See column 1, line 64 through column 2, line 42.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the combined teachings of Wood (US 6,106,733) and Nye (US 6,120,650).

Claims 2-8 differ from Wood, by specifying a quenching step. Nye, at column 4, line 20, teaches a quenching step. In view of this disclosure, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to employ a quenching step in the system of Wood, in order to aid in condensing out water and some hydrocarbons.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
